

Volunteer Opportunities

Homework Help Centers
Ready for Kindergarten
Reading Buddies
Life Skills
Genealogy, History and
Travel Archival Projects
Government Relations
Security

Columbus Metropolitan Library

Purpose

Columbus Metropolitan Library's purpose is to inspire reading, share resources and connect people. Our 23 locations lead the way in providing information resources to central Ohio.

In 2016 our customers downloaded 1.6 million items and borrowed 16.1 million more. They crossed our thresholds 5.3 million times, visited our website 9 million times, making us Open to All 24/7.

Impact

We serve the Ohio State community through:

- A state-of-the-art public library branch within walking distance of the Columbus campus
- Our mini-branch in the Thompson Library, providing student with access to our collection.
- Online services giving students, faculty and staff access to magazines, movies, music, eBooks, and audiobooks to be download to electronic devices anywhere.
- Off campus opportunities for students studying math, science, education and learning and more to work with the central Ohio community and get to know the populations we serve.
- Service learning, internship and volunteer opportunities to access professional experience before graduation by partnering with library staff.
- needs, and provide opportunities to access professional experience before graduation by partnering with library staff.

Ohio State Colleges/Units Involved

College of Arts and Sciences,
Career Services
Buckeye Leaders at the Library
Financial Aid, Work Study
School of Teaching and Learning
Early Childhood Development
Service-Learning and Internships
Service-Learning Committee
STEP Program Service Partner
English, First-Year Writing Program

Community Partners Involved

Columbus Alternative High School
Columbus City Schools
Columbus State Community College
Cristo Rey Columbus High School
Franklin University
The Graham School
The Metro School
Ohio Dominican University
Otterbein University
Other high schools throughout central Ohio

Coming Soon!
Northside Branch Reopens

To get involved, contact:

Sue Wolford
Volunteer Services Manager
Columbus Metropolitan Library
swolford@columbuslibrary.org columbuslibrary.org

